AN EXTRIORDINARY JESUIT CHRSS PLAYER.
Rev. Mr. Lamb, in his "History of Chess," published in 1765, gives this account of a remarkable blindfold player of that day:
Sachieri, a Jesuit of Turin, lately dead, had a most suprising memory. He could play at chess with three different persons, without seeing one of the three boards. His representative only telling him every move of the adversary, Sachieri would direct him what man to play, and converse with company all man to play, and converse with company all the time. If there happened a dispute about the place of a man, he could repeat every move made by both parties from the beginning of the game, in order to ascertain the place where the man ought to stand.

ILLEGITIMATE CHILDREN IN EUROPE.—While in London the children born out of wedlock are only one in twenty, in Paris and Vienna every third child is illegitimate; and, in Munich, years have occurred when the number of illegitimate births have outnumbered the legitimate. No material change, however, has taken place in this respect throughout Prussia since the year 1816, the average being about eight illegitimates in every one hundred births. In Weatphalia, the province of Posen, and the Rhenish provinces, the proportion of illegitimate births is only about half as great as in other parts of the kingdom. In Berlin, in the year 1849, the proportion was one in thirty. ILLEGITIMATE CHILDREN IN EUROPE.-While thirty.

Washington Correspondence of the New York Dailies—Tribune's Washington Correspondence—The Harper's Ferry Investigation.

New York, January 24.—No testimony has been given before the Committee of Investigation in any way implicating the Republicans with John Brown's raid.

Mr. Realf states emphatically that the mevement was known to but few persons, as Brown was a secretive man, and kept his own counsels. None who accompanied him to Harper's Ferry put Kagi was informed of the plan, which did not contemplate running off necroes. He says, also, that Brown and negroes. He says, also, that Brown and those in his confidence were radical Aboli-tionists, who denounced the Republicans. When Senator Wilson made his speech in Lawrence, they assailed him for failing to approach their standard of duty. Mr. Wilson appeared before the Committee and stated that he had written to Dr. Howe, of Boston, for the original letter which had been referred

That letter was written in May, 1858, and substantially tells Dr. Howe that information has reached him to the effect that Brown in-tended using arms furnished for Kansas by the Massachusetts Aid Society in a manner not contemplated, and advises that they should be withdrawn from him. Mr. Blair, of Collinsville, who manufactured the pikes which figured at Harper's Ferry, states that they were ordered during the Kansas troubles as weapons of protection. Mr. Callender, cashier of the Bank at Hartford, proves that Brown had funds there, which were drawn to furnish supplies for Kansas. Neither had the reotest idea of the movement in Virginia until it was published.

it was published.

The Herald's correspondent says: Realf concluded his testimony before the committee today. It was a detailed account of the erganization of the Brown Provisional Government, in Canada, which has already been published. He testified that he went to England in 1858, and know nothing about Brown's operations after that time. He was requested to examine certain letters found in Brown's hes. to ine certain letters found in Brown's bag, to see if he could identify them, but testified that he knew nothing about Brown's correspond-ence or the authorship of the letters.

It is evident that some members of the comnittee have been disappointed in Realf's testimony, he having testified to nothing of any importance that was not before in evidence.

Mr. B. B. Newton, the Vermont member of the National Kansas Committee, and previously the leader of a colony at Mapleton, Bourbon County, Kansas, confirmed the testimony of Mr. Corning. The refusal of the National Committee to furnish arms to Brown, in 1857, when he commenced testifying in relation to when he commenced testifying in relation to when he commenced testifying in relation to the invasion of Kausas by armed bodies of men, he was stopped. Senator Wilson went before the committee to-day and informed them of the time he would produce a copy of the letter to Dr. Howe, concerning the movements of Brown, based upon the information he received from Col. Forbes.

He sent to Natich for it. The Chairman informed him they were willing to give him his own time to prepare his testimony.

Later from Buenos Ayres. Naw York, January 24.—We have received advices from Buenos Ayres to the 29th of November, inclusive. The Governor of Buenos Ayres has issued an address to the military, congratulating them upon the restoration of peace, and calling upon them to lend the weight of their influence in earrying out the decrees of the new Government.

The ratifications of the treaty of peace have been celebrated by a te deum in all the churches and grand military displays throughout the provinces. An election was to be held on the 31st of December to select Deputies to revise the Provisional Constitution of May 1, 1858. The new Government enjoys in an eminent degree the confidence of the Buenos Ayrians, and political and commercial affairs move on harmoniously.

Ald for the Lawrence Sufferers. Bosron, January 24.—The Mayor of Law-ence and the Committee of Relief, having in charge the funds contributed to the aid of the Pemberton Mill sufferers, announce to the public that so generous have been the con-tributions from all quarters that no more assistance than what has been received and pledged will be necessary to supply liberally for the wants of those really needy.
